The Jack Klages Club House

Central Ohio's Premier Fly Fishing Club Since 1938

A private trout club committed to offering a fantastic fly-fishing experience

A natural setting with over 2-miles of streams and pools

Beautiful trout raised in our own hatchery

Zanesfield Rod and Gun Club

Since 1938, one of America's premier fly-fishing clubs, just minutes from home.

Located in Zanesfield, Ohio, just outside of Bellefontaine.

Blue-ribbon fishing for brook, brown and rainbow trout (18.5 pounds is our record).

Miles of natural, spring-fed streams and pools spread across a park-like 220 acres.

Complete, certified trout rearing and holding facilities – we raise and stock our own.

On-site kitchen and overnight lodging amenities: Clubhouse and Cushman Cottage.

Cushman Cottage

Fishing Benefits

Fly-fishing only – no competition from spin-fishermen or bait casters.

Thousands of healthy, hungry, homegrown trout to catch and keep or release.

Hand-raised and ready to strike: on the surface or down deep.

Diverse fishing conditions: pool & stream, flat water & faster, even a children's pond.

Unlimited season – 24/7/365 – stocked, staffed, and ready-to-go – we catch fish in February here.

Year Round Fishing

Fiscal Benefits

An honest-to-goodness club – member-owned, not-for-profit

Limited membership: fewer than 200, including non-resident and honorary.

Annual dues and fees cost less than a single Rocky Mountain fishing expedition.

Initiation fee a fraction of most golf and country clubs.

Family members and guests always welcome.
